

Unicorn Theatre Internship Opportunity: Literary Department

Work in the only professional literary office in Kansas City. Interns will gain hands on experience and knowledge of how new play development and a literary office work. The staff will provide each intern with training, guidance and professional knowledge. There will also be opportunities to work on productions and our reading series from a literary/dramaturgical standpoint.

The ideal candidate will:

- have knowledge of dramatic literature
- possess a passion for new plays and their development
- possess excellent analytical, writing and research skills
- possess solid computer and organization skills
- be open to accepting guidance and training

The Commitment: We're flexible. Stay with us for one or two semester or the whole year. Hours will be coordinated to fit your schedule. You can even do some of the work from home.

Compensation: College credit may be available through your school. An impressive resume-builder.

Deadline: We accept internship inquiries throughout the year. Send us your information and we'll figure out the best time to have you join our team.

To apply, candidates must submit the following materials:

1. Resume with references (documenting related experience)
2. Cover Letter (including):
 - Your career goals
 - Your interest in the arts, particularly contemporary theatre
 - What you have to offer the Unicorn
 - Indication of the time frame in which you are free
